

The City Consortium Accelerated Legal Practice Course

August 2022

What is the City Consortium?

We are a group of six leading, global law firms:

- Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer
- Linklaters
- Herbert Smith Freehills
- Norton Rose Fulbright
- Hogan Lovells
- Slaughter and May

What is the Accelerated Legal Practice Course?

In August 2022, you will be able to study on our market-leading Accelerated Legal Practice Course at BPP University Law School.

This programme will:

- incorporate three bespoke City elective modules which will equip you with the legal knowledge you will need for your career in one of our firms
- offer you a highly interactive learning experience through attendance at primarily face-to-face small group sessions
- provide you with quality learning materials which have been designed in collaboration with the City Consortium
- offer you an optional Master's qualification

You will be supported throughout by BPP's expert tutors and educational technology including the provision of:

- one-to-one sessions with a personal tutor
- a virtual learning environment
- regular assessment practice with tutor feedback
- coaching for oral and written skills

Why train with the City Consortium?

On the Accelerated Legal Practice Course you will:

- study on an established and intellectually rigorous programme to prepare you for working in the City
- enjoy live client-based workshops, led by experienced lawyers from City practice
- go beyond the law to develop your knowledge of legal technology by studying the Legal Technology, Innovation and Design module
- have access to the City Consortium's Plus Programme materials
- have opportunities to develop networks with your City Consortium peers

Your success is our success.

That's why we are investing in it.

You will study on the Accelerated Legal Practice Course from early August 2022 to February 2023.

